

The Office of the Attorney General's Brown Bag Lunch Lecture Series

Presents:

Technology: A Threat and Safety Net for Victims of Domestic Violence and Stalking

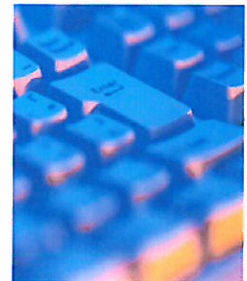

Technology can both help and harm victims of domestic violence and stalking. This session will provide an overview of Virginia's technology laws and how these laws can afford protection to victims. Presenters will also discuss how technology can be used as an instrument of harm and how victims can take affirmative steps to protect themselves in this technology-driven society.

With Featured Speakers:

George McLaughlin, Investigator, Computer Crimes Section,
Office of the Attorney General

Stacy Ruble, Domestic Violence Advocacy Coordinator/Grants
Manager, Virginia Sexual and Domestic Violence Action Alliance

Detective Bernard "Mac" Adams, Richmond Police Department

Thursday, October 15, 2009
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 noon

At the Office of the Attorney General Auditorium
900 E. Main Street
Richmond, VA 23219

To ensure space is available for all interested participants, please RSVP your attendance no later than Wednesday, October 14, 2009 to Corie Wolf at cwolf@oag.state.va.us or (804) 786-9593. If you have any questions, please contact Corie Wolf at the above e-mail/phone number, or Melissa Roberson, at (804) 692-0592, mdickert@oag.state.va.us.

A special thanks to the Virginia Sexual and Domestic Violence Action Alliance for their continued partnership on this series.